

THE PACIFIC

INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

VACANCY

COMMERCIAL MANAGER

The Pacific Institute of Technology (previously NZPTC) is a private tertiary institute based in Fiji Islands, offering Australian TAFE Programs & Programs in Information Technology, Business, Hospitality and English Language Program.

The Institute is looking for a dynamic person for this challenging role. There are 3 CORE areas of business:

- Managing the centres
- Providing students services
- Managing commercial training

This person will have the responsibility for:

- Managing all the centres & centre administration
- Domestic marketing, liaising with local communities,
- Accountability for commercial viability of the institute
- Pastoral care and student welfare
- Managing with The Institutes Foundation & Alumni

Key Competencies

- Strong computing and IT literacy is essential
- Demonstrated good communication Skills
- Negotiating skill
- Track record in identifying and delivering staff training
- Ability to organise, prioritise and time manage
- Manage the business image and public relations

This is a senior position and will require internal travelling. An attractive salary with performance pay will be part of package.

The successful applicant is likely to have at least a Bachelors Qualification and had 5 years leading multidisciplinary teams in a commercial environment.

Interested person please apply to hr@thepacific.com.fj

To view the job profile please visit www.thepacific.com.fj